

TOM CLARK BIO

Tom Clark is the boy next door...if you lived next door to an insane asylum. Whether it's his off kilter observations, his knack for spontaneous crowd interaction, or his unusual physical comedy, Clark's act has a little something for everyone. This has allowed Clark to perform coast to coast and around the world at both New Faces at the prestigious Montreal 'Just For Laughs Comedy Festival' and on The Main Stage at 'The Capetown Comedy Festival' in South Africa. Other appearances include: CBS's 'Late Late Show', NBC's 'Last Comic Standing', The Bob & Tom Radio Show, and Comedy Central's 'Premium Blend'.

Clark has a strong background in improv and sketch having completed the Second City Conservatory in Chicago and being a Main Company member at ComedySportz LA. Clark has also landed several guest starring roles including the Hallmark made for TV movie 'The Wish List', NBC's 'Outsourced', and even a dramatic role on TNT's 'The Closer' opposite Kyra Sedgewick...yes he was the murderer. After landing the role on 'Outsourced', director Ken Kwapis invited Clark to be in the Drew Barrymore movie, 'Everybody Loves Whales', which will be released in 2012.
